PROFILE

Full stack web developer based in Padova, Italy. I build complete web solutions — from user interface to server, database and deployment — using React, Next.js, Node.js and Laravel, and I am an expert in WordPress, Shopify and Wix. I have delivered websites and online stores for clients in Europe, the UAE and Asia, and I run my own SaaS products. Clean code, fast performance and strong SEO — websites that bring real business results.

EXPERIENCE

Freelance Full Stack Web Developer — Present

Remote · Padova, Italy

- Design, develop and launch business websites, e-commerce stores and landing pages for international clients.
- Build custom WordPress themes and plugins, WooCommerce and Shopify stores, and multilingual sites.
- Optimize speed, Core Web Vitals and technical SEO so client websites load fast and rank on Google.

SaaS Product Developer — Present

Independent products

- Built and maintain several SaaS products, including a remote workforce platform and a multi-tenant management system.
- Developed full stack architecture: authentication, user roles, dashboards, billing and REST APIs.
- Manage hosting, deployment, security and continuous feature releases.
